THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For six months, - - - - -	$5,00
For one month - - - - -	1,00
" two months - - - - -	2,00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The scarcity of money however, obliges us to say to our friends, that responsible and prompt persons who desire the Sentinel need not delay sending us their names at once, who can send us the Cash in a short time. The money may be sent us by the Rail Road Conductors or the Express Company.

Subscribers, etc.

A number of our friends owe us for subscription and advertising. We need the amount and will be obliged to our friends if they will send it to us by Express or by safe hands. The members of the Legislature will afford a good chance.

The Sentinel will be enlarged in a few days.

Are our People Loyal?

If loyalty consists in respect for the government, obedience to its laws, and a purpose to support and maintain it in the legitimate exercise of its powers, then are our people loyal. If loyalty requires a ready acquiescence in such terms of reunion as the true interests of the whole country demand—if a high appreciation of the magnanimity displayed by President Johnson, contains any element of loyalty—if a disposition to forget the past and in future to discharge the obligations they have assumed by the oath of amnesty, then indeed they are loyal.

The discovery of the Standard that the people are disloyal, is a new one—a sudden conversion. It is only a few weeks since the organ was ready to break its league with its confrere the Progress, because it snuffed disloyalty in every breeze. The Standard, then in its senses and good humor, was outraged at the lying dispatches of the agent of the Associated Press from this State. Gov. Holden came forward to the defence of the loyalty of the State. More than once he assured the Northern people of our disposition to harmonize and of the loyalty of our people. But when Gov. Holden is defeated for Governor, simply because the people preferred a man like Jonathan Worth, whose political integrity and soundness no man dares call in question, the whole aspect is changed and our people are denounced as a treasonable and traitorous brood.

We are glad to find our city cotemporaries receive no countenance or support from the State press, in their false charges against our people. The Salisbury Banner, a paper which to the surprise of many of its old friends, warmly sustained Gov. Holden's election, now hastens to throw back the charge of disloyalty against our people, made by the Progress and Standard.—It says:

We speak what we know when we say that there is not a disloyal man in this part of the country or within the whole circle of our acquaintance. Do our contemporaries consider fully what they mean when they make such broad and sweeping accusations?

Again, it correctly attributes the defeat of Gov. Holden purely to his unpopularity and not to any disaffection whatever to the government:

We endeavored in our humble way to stay the tide—to no effect. But while we believe that Gov. Holden was opposed mainly because of political hatred, and personal animosity toward the man—there was not the slightest element of disloyalty in it. We think, and we expressed ourselves that the election will be misunderstood and misconstrued at the North. They cannot appreciate the intensity of the opposition to Gov. Holden. But we do protest in the name of truth and justice against our own papers giving currency to the misapprehension by publishing to the world such articles as we have quoted. We say that our people are loyal—that they intend faithfully to keep the Amnesty oath—that they have given up the cherished hopes of four years and will maintain for the future, the Union of the States under the Constitution.

The Charlotte Times on the other hand, which supported Mr. Worth as the Union candidate, on the ground of his uniform political consistency, rebukes and repels in a proper spirit, the false charges of the Progress and Standard. With the exception of an occasional squinting in that direction on the part of the Wilmington Herald and Newbern Times, and then only by the way, we are glad to say, no presses in the State sustain the course of our two city cotemporaries.—We endorse most heartily the following from the Charlotte Times:

In this election our people have given a proof of the sincerity with which they have grounded their arms, and taken the oath of allegiance and accepted amnesty. Hereafter they can be fully trusted, and we speak advisedly when we assert that there is not a disloyal man in this District, who has taken these oaths. And the insinuation, or rather charge, to the contrary, by certain of the press of Raleigh, only show to what depths these sheets have fallen. Mr. Worth was supported by the best and purest men in the State—men who have ever been true to their pledges—and never swerved from their political integrity to accomplish a selfish or personal object.

When the Standard and Progress write of treason, or disloyalty in the State, they simply mean the high souled and chivalrous sons of North Carolina will not bow down and worship the golden calf. Vote for Holden and be loyal, and against him, and be a traitor. That is the English of it—and if that is to be the test, then we are a traitor, and glory in the treason. As Provisional Governor, we have not aught to say of him—but as a politician we are against him—and if chance should throw us on the same side with him, it would make us greatly question the correctness of our views. North Carolina is one of the most conservative of all the States. She went out of the Union with great reluctance—and she returned with reluctance; but being in, she will stand as a rock against the waves of Radicalism,—and will give to Mr. Johnson's able and constitutional administration that warm and cordial support she has always given to the right. We speak the sentiments of every intelligent man in the State, "outside of the straitest sect," and we throw back with that scorn and contempt which it merits—the charge of disloyalty—which has been made against the supporters of Jonathan Worth.

Emigration of Laborers.

Some weeks ago, we urged the necessity of organizing a systematic effort in this State, and the sending out of Agents to induce farmers, artisans, and miners of the right stamp, from the Northern States and Europe, to settle in this State. We are glad to observe that the subject is attracting some attention, but not so much as the important of the subject demands. We are aware that prejudices exist among Southern people and this State, to the admixture of peoples and races. The desire for a homogeneous people is very strong in this State, and the attachments of natives to each other are very strong, yet after all necessity knows no law. Hereafter labor and free labor only, is to constitute the wealth of the South. If she ever recovers from the devastations and ruins of the war, mere prejudice must be laid aside. The Southern people must look the entire question of their economic as well as political wants, both present and future, full in the face. Sound wisdom dictates the earliest, yet the most wisely directed efforts at recuperation.

There is no barrier to the early return of the freedmen to regular, systematic labor as agriculturists and mechanics. To the labor of the fields they are especially adapted. The profits of agriculture promise them the largest compensation. Yet as a general rule, they can neither hope to buy or rent lands at present, to any great extent. There are exceptions, but they are few indeed, who have either the funds or the credit to purchase, and the number is almost equally small, capable of managing farms properly or profitably. If land-owners are to rely upon their rents for support, as many feel obliged to do, the first and most important thing is to secure a good tenant. They not only desire a certainty for the rent, but they wish their lands managed by persons who are capable, and who will at least not allow them to deteriorate in their hands. This after all, is the great secret, why so few land-owners are disposed to rent their lands to the freedmen. They may have every confidence in their industry, in their disposition to do them justice, and yet the almost universal improvidence of the blacks and their want of judgment in managing and keeping up a farm, will almost entirely close the door against this arrangement. As a general rule, the free blacks must be willing to work either at farming or as mechanics, under the superior instruction and judgment of white men, until they make themselves competent to manage with skill and success.

Years must elapse before this can be effected, unless there is a large accession to our population of foreigners trained to labor and who are skillful. Such an accession to our population cannot be too early introduced. Neither the blacks nor the Southern whites are trained to skillful labor. Necessity may force them to work, but they need instructors, examples before their eyes, before they can ever approach a proper standard in this regard. Our judgment therefore entirely leans to the necessity, however unpleasant or disagreeable it may be to our former prejudices, to the early introduction into this State, of the best class of foreign laborers which can possibly be procured. There is no time to be lost in this work. We trust therefore our people will give their earliest and most earnest attention to the subject.

Election Returns.

A PARDON REVOKED.—The President has fully approved the action of General Fisk, Commissioner of Freedmen for the District of Tennessee, in refusing to deliver up the property of John Overton, the noted rich Tennessee rebel. It seems that the pardon was made out and signed, the signing being done by a fac simile stamp, through mistake, the President not intending to issue the pardon. The President has telegraphed Governor Brownlow to hold on to the document, and Mr. Overton's property will remain in the custody of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The New Orleans Crescent thinks that the Republican papers at the North that are so indignant at Maximilian for maintaining a severe code of martial law in Mexico, had better first give up their prejudices in favor of that style of law at the South, or else "dry up" on the Mexican enormity. Maximilian, at least, has the excuse that Mexico is in a state of war; but profound peace reigns in the South.

Captain Sinclair of the Liberal forces, formerly a lieutenant on board of the Confederate privateer Alabama, had captured an Imperial transport on the North Rio Grande, taken her into Brownsville and turned her over the Federal authorities, who placed a guard on board of her.

For the Sentinel.

Are we a Loyal People?

We believe that a systematic effort is now being made, by certain journals in North Carolina, to produce the impression that the people of this State are disloyal to their Federal obligations—that there is more disloyalty in the South now than there was six months ago, and that the feeling of hostility to the Union is increasing—that when Generals Lee and Johnson surrendered, and the people of the whole South, with a manly dignity, and with a quiet and unanimity, unparalelled in the history of nations, gave in their adhesion to the union, laid down their arms and returned to the sweet pursuits of peace, it was all a show, a hypocritical pretence—induced by the fear of Federal bayonets, and that now they are again ready to raise the standard of opposition and rebellion against the Federal Union. We will not stop to demonstrate that these charges are infamous slanders against a brave and an honorable people, who, when they declare their loyalty to the Government and to the Federal Union mean what they say. Slanders they undoubtedly are—but we propose to examine the source whence they come.

We believe that men of ambitious tempers—who care nothing for the people of North Carolina, or the South or the Union, excepting so far as their own schemes can be promoted by them, are at the bottom of all this cry of disloyalty. The same class of men who, when it suited their purposes, declared that the great mass of the people of North Carolina were opposed to secession and war and were only kept from asserting their loyalty to the Union by the bayonets of Jeff. Davis and Vance, are now, because the people have no confidence in them, slandering and abusing that same people, and charging them with treason against the Union. We remember too well—the people remembers that it was the same class of politicians, with the Standard at their head, who, for more than twenty years, sought to build up and perpetuate their power in North Carolina, by charging every body opposed to them, with being disloyal to the South and to States-Rights. We well remember how in 1844, the Standard labored to ruin Mr. Clay, whom it now hypocritically eulogises, by endeavoring to identify him with "Northern enemies" and by endeavoring to create the impression that he was untrue to the "pecular institution" of the South—how in 1847, it denounced Governor Graham for desecrating the Executive Mansion of the State, by making Daniel Webster his guest; that same Webster—"the noble and the God like," one of whose sentiments the Standard now adopts as its motto: "Liberty and Union—now and forever, one and inseparable." And which should burn and melt, with very shame, the type which seeks now to print it upon the former libeller of its illustrious author, and which makes hundreds, when they see it thus sacrilegiously misplaced, cry "Shame! Shame!!" The people remember how in 1848, it denounced and traduced Taylor, and Fillmore, and charged them with being disloyal to the South and unsound upon the Slavery question—how it similarly denounced Scott and Graham in 1852 and Fillmore and Donnelson in 1856. How Morehead and Graham and Dockery and Gilmer (did the Standard ever get tired of "Kiss him Giddings!" as long as it could make capital of it?) and hundreds of others, who would not yield to the secession heresies of the Standard, were denounced by that sheet and brought into political disrepute, because of their national sentiments, and because remembering that they were American citizens, they would not limit their minds to the narrow dogma, of what the Standard called States-Rights—and urge on those who were arraying one section of the Union against another. But we doubt not that the Standard eases its conscience (if it has one) by saying that these were times of high political excitement and it was all done for party effect. Very true. It was done for party effect. Party ambition? Saw FAME on the temple and it cared not for slaughtered characters, or wrecked fortunes, or ruined people, provided it could obtain the prize. For party effect, the Standard sowed, broadcast, the seeds of secession and sectional hatred—for party purposes it assiduously cultivated these hateful plants, until they ripened into their legitimate fruit of rebellion, war and ruin. And it is poor consolation now to say that it was only done for party effect. You may tell the widows and the orphans, the mothers and the sisters, that it is true, that for party effect, you taught their husbands and fathers—their sons and brothers, the doctrine of secession—that they ought to love States-Rights and hate the yankee, but when you found that the thing was carried a "little too far" and the bloody fight had commenced, you did all you could to hold them back and that you even saved the lives of some at the cost of their honors. You may tell them all this, but it will not give back the loved lost ones—it will not bring light to the widow's heart nor bread to the orphan's cry—it will not give back to the mother her darling boy nor to the sister, her manly and much loved brother.

As in time past, for party effect, the Standard abused all who were opposed to it as disloyal to the South and to the State; so now, for selfish ends, it falsely and wickedly seeks to bring still deeper injury upon those whom its counsels ruined and who now have no confidence in it, by falsely denouncing them as untrue to the Union and thus bringing down upon them the vengeance of Federal power. It is evidently gratified at the thought that because the people of North Carolina will not trust it, it may be able to "keep them out shivering in the cold." But we tell that paper, when it denounces Wm Eaton, than whom a purer man never lived, as "deep died in secession and treason," the falsehood is so glaring that it defeats its end. When it comes to the conclusion that North Carolina is untrue to the Union, because Graham, and Morehead, and Gilmer, and Eaton, and Worth, and Ferrebee, and the great mass of the people, who have always been true to the instincts of honor, have no confidence in its fidelity, people will examine into the matter and ask, "whence come these charges?" The people of North Carolina are true to the Union—they are true to the Federal government, they are true and honest in their support of the President, in his liberal policy of reconstruction. They believe that he is guided by no narrow, contracted views—but that the interests of the South and of the Union are safe in his hands. They say that his policy has their hearty approval, and they mean what they say, and the attempt to prejudice President Johnson against the people of the South and to create distrust in the minds of the administration and of the people of the North, is a wickedness of the same character with that of which the Standard was guilty, when, in times past, it sought for party effect, to make the people of the State believe that Graham, and Morehead, and Gilmer, and Dockery, and all others who opposed it, were untrue to the State. We say, with the most perfect sincerity and candor, to the administration and to the people of the North, that we believe that the people of North Carolina are as united as it is possible for a people to be in their support of President Johnson and the Union. No people were ever more united in one cause, and the worst enemies (whether they mean it or not) of the administration, and of the Union, and of the South, are those who are now sowing broadcast, the seeds of mistrust and loosing, instead of cementing, the bonds of confidence and Union, as in former times they sowed the seeds of secession and sectional strife, which produced so much of woe.

The State of North Carolina gives her honest support to the Union, to the constitution and to the laws. We believe that there is not a neighborhood in the State, in which any resistance, or attempt at resistance, to the laws would not instantly be put down by the citizens themselves. We do not believe that a single community can be found in which there is not an overwhelming majority who support and uphold the authority of the Government, and those who attempt to tarnish her fame and prejudice her people abroad, who attempt to create the impression that her people are untrue and disloyal, are her slanderers and enemies.

It has been suggested by a friend, that the late election was not a fair expression of the will of the people of North Carolina. For instance, says he: "I know men who desired to vote for Gov. Holden, but who were deterred from doing so. It is true, there was nothing to operate upon their physical fears. All improper influences of that kind passed away with the Vance and Davis despotism, when bayonets were used and men were "compelled to vote as they were told or be hurried off in the ranks to the front—there to be shot down like cattle." But though no improper influences of this kind were used, yet there were others of a different sort addressed to the moral courage of voters, which men of yielding natures could not withstand.—One of these was the cowardly fear of public sentiment. It was so strong against Gov. Holden that men could not resist it. Again, many who, doubtless wished to vote for the Governor, were told that they were voting under the threats of the Standard, such as "voting for Worth will not get a pardon for your friend." "Vote for Holden and go in or Worth and stay out" and the like. Men were deterred by such threats as these in the Standard, from voting for Gov. Holden, for they felt and thought that it was not brave nor manly to vote under threats, and to show their independence, they either would not vote at all, or if they did, it was for that honest, consistent, straight-forward old Union man Worth—poor old fellow—who never had political cunning enough to make the people believe that he was against the Union when he was for it, or for the Union when he was against it." *

Direct Taxes--Interesting to Land Owners.

By the act of Congress of the 5th of August, 1861, a direct tax of $20,000,000 was levied upon lands and houses in all the States in the Union, those of the South as well as those of the North. The amount was apportioned among the States, and full arrangements were made for the collection of the same by the usual machinery of assessment and collection. At the same time privilege was given to each of the several States to assume their proportions of the tax, and pay it at once. This was done by the States not in rebellion, and the citizens of those States were assessed for the amount in their general taxes.—Most of them paid it without knowing exactly that they were doing so. Hence, so little was said about direct taxes that the burden was scarcely felt to be one in the loyal States. But in the disloyal States the existence of the tax will, doubtless, be well known hereafter and cause some trouble. The following amounts are charged to the States lately in rebellion:—Virginia, $937,550.67; North Carolina, $576,194,-66: South Carolina, $363 570 66; Georgia, $584,-367 33; Alabama, $529 313 33; Mississippi, $413,084 66; Louisiana, $385.886 66; Tennessee, $669,498; Arkansas, $261,886; Florida, $77,-522 66; Texas, 255,106 66. By an act passed in 1862, it was provided that the direct tax should be charged upon all lands in insurrectionary districts and remain a lien thereon, and that where practicable the lands might be sold for default of payment whenever possession could be obtained by the United States officers. Under this act sales of lands for non-payment of taxes have been made in the South, but they have been few in number. The Government officers in the South have not been urgent as to the collection of the direct tax, but it is evident that the time of payment is near. In South Carolina the pressure has been felt, and Governor Perry applies to the President for some indulgence. He asks that the State may assume her proportion of the tax and pay it in South Carolina bonds. It is not probable that the request will be granted, even assuming that it is within the power of the Government to do so. The loyal States were required to pay in cash, and they did so.

Mexican Rumors--Juarez Reported in Texas--Liberal Generals to be Shot--Liberal Soldiers in Federal Uniforms.

NEW YORK, November 17.—Late Mexican papers, received by the steamer Manhattan, contain the following:

It is rumored in Vera Cruz that Juarez was in Texas, on his way to Piedras Negras. It was also rumored that the United States troops in Texas were more and more approaching the river, as if contemplating some hostile movement.

Dates from Morella to the 27th state that the Imperialist Colonel Mendez ordered the Liberal Generals Ortega and Salazarab and three Colonels to be shot.

A Republican camp was attacked by the Imperialists near Mattamoras, and among the prisoners captured there were three soldiers in United States uniforms, who were handed over for trial to a court martial, which would no doubt order them to be shot.

COST OF THE WAR IN DOLLARS.—The Washington Republican says:

We are officially informed to-day that one thousand and twenty millions of dollars have been paid to the army alone since the beginning of the war. This is but a small portion of the number of dollars expended, to say nothing of the lives lost, to crush out treason. The prize won—freedom to four million of slaves—more than balances the cost.

Let us cipher. Four millions of negroes could have been bought for $800,000,000 at two hundred dollars per head, a high average price for old men, women, children, &c. The Federal, State, county and other debts in freeing them is full $4,000,000,000.

The "prize" won, then, of four millions of free negroes stands thus:

Cost,	$4,000,000,000
Value of the negroes,	800,000,000
Loss by the war,	$3,200,000,000

As a mercantile job, the freeing of the negroes has not paid, certainly, in dollars.

GEORGIA COTTON CLAIMS.—The State of Georgia, through its officers, has signified its intention of claiming the cotton captured by the forces of the United States at the fall of Savannah. A large amount of this cotton had previously been sold by the State agent to Mr. Brigham, but Gov. Joe Brown, the then Executive, refused to ratify the sale. Mr Brigham paid for the cotton in Confederate money, and claims it as his property. The United States Government has not yet decided how the rival claims shall be disposed of.

We have more goods than purchasers, yet our merchants manage to get rid of many. It will be seen that the Messrs. Tucker advertise their third importations this season.

Stealing Horses.

This seems to be the order of the day. Almost every day or night we hear of some one losing a horse, either by a white man or a darkey. The other night one of Gen. Cox's carriage horses was stole from his stables. His servant left in charge in the absence of the General in Tennessee, went in search of him next day and found the horse in Orange. There are four stolen horses advertised in this paper. Look out for them.

City Market.

The market continues good, though not so largely attended as some months ago. We learn there were not so many freedmen lounging about the market yesterday doing nothing as heretofore.

Work.

Hands are needed in the country. Our farmers will pay good prices. White and black must go to work. If idlers gather about the streets, they will be put to work. The town people have no use for idle hands. Let the idle take warning.

Many Wives.

It appears a Capt. ——— lately belonging to the army, who believes in having more wives than one, took out a few days ago, when he heard that his wife from Maine and another from Maryland, who learned that he was specially interested in some of the females in these parts, arrived here in pursuit of him. We learn the said Captain has been apprehended and brought back, and that his two interesting wives have been patiently waiting his return. It is said the ladies agree pretty well, and are amusing themselves at having caught up with him and defeated him in getting a third wife. The name of the Captain we do not know.

GENERAL NEWS

The Hebrews furnished 40,000 soldiers for the Union army in the late war, and they have established asylums for disabled soldiers, widows and orphans at New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says it is not to be disguised that within the State of West Virginia there is a reactionary party, not only as regards national politics, but as regards the very existence of the State of West Virginia.

The French Courier, at New York, is indignant at the appointment of General Logan as United States Minister to the Republic of Mexico, and pronounces it a "provocation." It adds in substance, that the French troops now will not leave Mexico. France is allied with Mexico, now, right or wrong, and will maintain the alliance.

RESTORATION OF A SOUTHERN ESTATE.—Ex-Senator Johnson, of Arkansas, is here seeking restoration of his plantations now in possession of the Freedmen's Bureau. He had an interview with officers of the Bureau to-day, and it is thought that the property will be turned over to him.—Washington Chronicle.

Governor Brownlow writes a newspaper letter to say that it was not he, but his son, who was lately robbed—that Tennessee abounds with thieves and robbers, and adds: I am one of those at the South who believe this war has closed out two years too soon! The rebels have been whipped, but not whipped enough.

The first Methodist society in this country was formed in 1766. Now there are in connection, North and South, 8,421 itinerant preachers, 13,205 local do., 1,628,320 members, 101 colleges and academies, and 31,106 students. Next year occurs the centenary celebration.

The President has pardoned Robert Tyler, son of ex-President Tyler, and late Assistant Treasurer under the Confederate Government.

The interdict laid on the Episcopal churches of Alabama by the military commandant of that State has been removed by the special order of the President.

The Houston Telegraph of the 10th instant, learns that orders have been received in the State from Washington not to muster out of the service any more troops, nor to sell any more Government property until further orders.

The Hon. John Bell, of Tennessee, is about to write a letter to the President of the United States, which will doubtless attract much attention.

General Sherman, while in Lawrenceburg, Ind., a few days ago, was asked what he thought of General Palmer's course in Kentucky. He replied: "Well, I don't know. If it's monarchy or consolidation we're after, he is right; but if we want to preserve the old form of government, he's all wrong."

[Special dispatch to the New York News.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17, 1865.

Our claims against England, the excitement on the Canada frontier, the conditional offer of Napoleon to withdraw the French troops from Mexico, and the representation of the Southern States in Congress, are among the subjects discussed at the Cabinet meeting to-day. The President's proclamation, announcing the restoration of the Southern States to the Union, and their right to full representation in Congress, and also restoring the writ of habeas corpus, will be issued before the end of November.

UNIVERSAL OR NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—Those in favor of this monstrous doctrine, met last evening at one of the Unitarian churches, Mr. Sayles J. Brown calling the meeting to order. Governor Hahn, of Louisiana, addressed the meeting, who goes in strongly for miscegenation. He was followed by one G. E. H. Day. Neither of these speeches referred to the late terrible butchery of whites in Jamaica and Hayti, that has so startled the civilized world, and proven to the satisfaction of all enlightened minds, not biassed with fanaticism, that the negro is not fit for self government or equality with the whites, and when left to themselves, invariably relapse into barbarism, as it is second nature to them.—Exchange.

The Negroes--Appearance of Trouble in Virginia--Secret Meetings of Armed Negroes.

We alluded yesterday to the rumors of trouble between the negroes and the white population of the surrounding country, which have recently been circulated to some extent in this community; and we expressed the belief that there was no foundation for these reports. We were informed yesterday, however, that secret meetings are held by negroes twice a week, in different sections of Princess Anne County, and that these meetings are guarded by colored men.—Our information comes from a reliable source. We have just learned also, that the citizens of Princess Anne are somewhat concerned about these assemblages, and do not feel entirely pleasant with regard to their object.

Now, if secret meetings are held by colored people, and guarded, it is very reasonable to suppose that the white people cannot sleep as quietly as if there was no such cause of concern or alarm; and more particularly as it is stated that the colored men have arms and ammunition, while very many of the white people have none. We do not make this statement for the purpose of creating alarm. Even a mere suspicion of trouble should not always be withheld from the public; and a hint is often exceedingly valuable in putting on their guard those who may possibly be in danger.

We deem it not inappropriate to call the attention of the military authorities to the state of affairs to which we have alluded, and believe that such measures will be taken as may be considered proper under the circumstances. It may be expedient to place well selected guards at different locations, or perhaps far better, to allow the white people to arm themselves and organize in order to be prepared for any emergency that may possibly happen.

We do not think that negroes should be allowed to hold secret meetings and place an armed guard over them. Proceedings of this kind by white people would not be permitted; and this matter should receive the prompt attention of those intrusted with the peace and good order of the community.—Norfolk Old Dominion.

The Company has also such favorable contracts with steamer lines from all Northern ports to those of the South, as will enable it to deliver goods at all inland points at rates below the usual charges. The tariff of charges will be based upon a fair business per centage above the cost of transportation, without being onerous or oppressive; nor will it be made less than the cost of transportation, with the view to break down or drive off any rival, to advance to oppressive and unnecessarily high rates. Upon this basis the Company solicits public patronage.

GREAT BARGAINS
IN CLOTHS AND FANCY DRY GOODS.

THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY ANnounces to his friends and patrons, and to the Members of the Legislature, and to strangers visiting the City, that he continues to carry on the
at his old stand, where he will be happy to see them and sell them great bargains in his line. He would also call the attention of those of the Military Department wishing to purchase clothing, uniforms or citizens' dress, to the fact that they will find great bargains. In style and taste they cannot be surpassed by any in this city or any other. He deems it unnecessary to say any thing of his own skill in the Tailoring business, but it will suffice to say that his experience has not been for a few years only, but for the last 25 years. He therefore solicits a liberal patronage. Prompt attention will be given to persons wishing to have cutting done. Orders from a distance will be thankfully received and promptly attended to. Call at store No. 15 Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.
MRS. FENTRESS has opened a Boarding House next door, about 150 yards from the Capitol, where she will entertain members of the Legislature or transient Boarders.

For cheapness there is none that can compete with the house of Messrs. Bowen & Randall, No. 15 Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C. Call and examine his goods before you purchase elsewhere, and my word for it you will find cheap goods.
A new supply of goods has just been received and he will continue to receive them by every steamer that arrives.
The strictest attention will be paid by Mr. Bowen, the proprietor, and his clerks, to those who give him a call.
Make no mistake. Be certain to call at the store No. 15 Fayetteville Street, on the corner of the vacant square.

FACTS TO BE CONSIDERED.

THERE ARE BUT FEW SUBJECTS PRESENTED to the mind of man upon which there are not a great variety of opinions, and about which there are not protracted discussions. But there are a few facts so well established, and so uncontrovertible that they are universally assented to. One is that all men now living, will soon be called upon to gather up their feet and depart to the land of the dead. "One generation goeth, and another cometh, and we have no abiding city here," is a matter about which there is no dispute. Another is, "Of that day, and of that hour, knoweth no man." Whether death cometh at the twelfth hour or at the cock crowing, is of equal uncertainty to all.

Another is, that when wife and children gather around us, to take their final leave, in that sad circle centers all our earthly interest. The last earthly rational thought of Husband and Father, is Wife and Children (if worthy of sustaining such endearing relations.) Another is, no man living knows what may be the result of his efforts to secure a competence for his family. "Riches take to themselves wings and fly away," has been realized by how many? adverse winds of to-morrow, may take the place of to-day's prosperous gales; under currents which the most penetrating eye cannot see, or the strongest arm control, may in an evil hour sweep away the hard earnings of years. Another is, no man ever has, or ever can assume more sacred obligations, than Husband and Father. Hence it is said, that he that will not provide for his own household is worse than an infidel.

Now, what Husband and Father is there battling with the difficulties of life, knowing as he must, that uncertainties attend every effort, and wait upon every enterprise, that he has not with earnest voice, and anxious heart, called to the future to unlock its barred gates and reveal to him the result of this or that undertaking. But the only voice that comes from that land of silence, is, "Verily, thou knowest not what shall be on the morrow."

Such are some of the few facts about which there is no controverry, and such are some of the uncertainties that ever have, and ever will, gather around our pathway through life, and which have in generations past, and will in generations to come, trouble and oppress the Husband and Father. Now in view of these facts, responsibilities, and uncertainties, it is for you to judge and decide upon the propriety, necessity, and duty, of making a policy on your life, for the benefit of your family. Will it not relieve you of your present anxiety to know that a certain portion of the fruits of you labors are secured to that family? Remember that whatever you pay for a life policy is paid to them. The stranger intermeddleth not with that.

Remember also, that $5000 paid to them in that day when the heart and flesh shall fail you, will be more to them, than $10,000 while you are here to provide for them Also remember, that the amount for which you are insured will not be diminished in the settling of your estate, and that from generation to generation, Life Insurance has answered the end for which is was ordained, as fully, to say to the least, as any institution of man's creation, and that its primary object was, and still is, to secure the family against the stern realities of want, and to relieve from corroding anxiety those who have assumed family responsibilities.

Do you say "I know it would be wise in me to take out a policy and I intend to do so soon; but just now I want to use all my funds in my business."—Friend, if it is wisdom in you to insure at all, it is folly to defer it, to-morrow is in eternity, therefore "Boast not thyself of to morrow," "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." "Procrastination is the thief of time."

The Aetna Life Insurance Company offers you all the inducements to insure that can be found in any company. Its assets are over a million and a half. It has a surplus of $300,000 over and above what is required to reinsure all its policies. Its monthly receipts are over $150,000. And it is issuing monthly nearly 1000 policies. Its rates for insurance are as reasonable as those of any other well established responsible Company. It is paying as large dividends to its policy holders as any other Company. Its officers are competent business men. Its assets, are as permanently and as safely invested as any other company can invest theirs, and from which as good interest is being received. It pays its losses as promptly, is as particular in the character of its risks, and as yet it is a stranger to litigation.
